CAHILL, GORDON & REINDEL

Prominent US legal practice Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP are situated in New York, Washington DC and London and possess an enviable reputation on Wall Street for their work within the banking and financial sector.

Project Overview

This project saw a collaborative team brought together to represent the interests of Cahill Gordon & Reindel in their relocation to new premises at 24 Monument Street in the heart of the City of London.

The work undertaken by JAC for Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP followed a similar team structure to those on behalf of Vinson & Elkins RLLP, Christofferson Robb and Blackstone.

About the Building

No vision of the future is complete without a sense of history. Monument Place is no exception. Inspired by Sir Christopher Wren's Monument and his ambition to build a new London, it offers businesses everything they need for the future: space, amenities and exceptional transport links.

JAC GROUP

"After an extensive process, we selected JAC as our Project Manager in connection with the fit-out of our new office space at 24 Monument Street, London, a 6,600 sq ft floor in a new class-A building. From the initial interview through hand-over we were impressed with JAC's efficiency and professionalism on all aspects of the project. We had an aggressive time schedule and feel that JAC's determined leadership of our project was key in our reaching completion on time and on budget."
