THE PROJECT

Founded in the Netherlands in 2000, Cardano now has over 140 staff with backgrounds in the areas of risk management, investment management, research, actuarial, investment advisory and fiduciary management.

PROJECT OVERVIEW

JAC were been appointed to oversee the relocation of Cardano from Gracechurch Street to Bevis Marks. JAC provided design insight, cost consultancy and project management, bringing transparency and independence to the decision making process, all the while interpreting the client's needs and design aspirations.

ABOUT THE BUILDING

6 Bevis Marks is a striking signature building designed by Fletcher Priest providing 160,000 sqft of high performance office space.

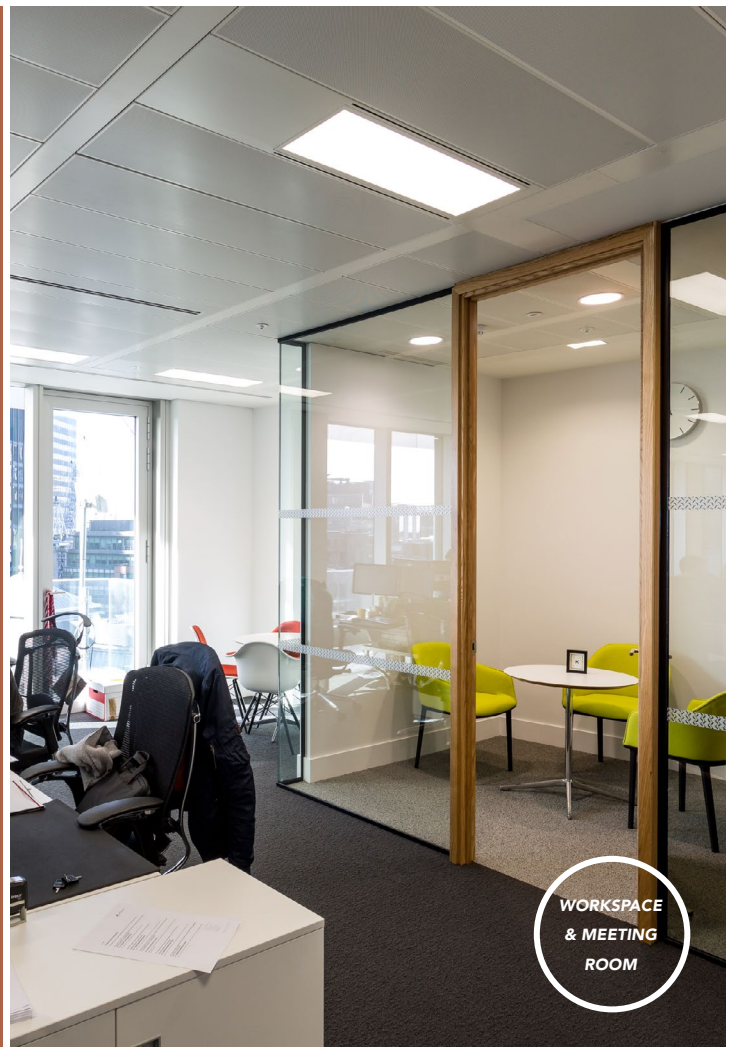

6 Bevis Marks is situated in the heart of the world's corporate and financial centre as well as offering a huge diversity of lifestyle amenities.

"Working with David West was a great experience. To find a client with such a clear vision for what the business wanted to achieve but also the manner in which he wanted to achieve it, was great to witness."

The formation of the project team and the way in which we were able to supplement key roles to drive the best possible solutions was entirely in the best interests of the project. Our Creative Director Tammy Nestor also added significant value to the credibility of the design solution and despite Cardano following a design and build procurement route, the formation of the project team had clear hints of traditional engagements that allowed us to deliver such a rewarding project."
