

REDBURN

Redburn Partners are Europe's largest independent equities broker, providing institutional investors with equity research and agency execution in Pan-European equity markets.

Project Overview

The JAC management services saw the close coordination of a wide professional team that included mechanical & electrical consultants ESP, Home Control Solutions, Dimension Data UK and MLM. The landlords team representing the interests of JP Morgan included building management team Cushman & Wakefield, disposing agents DTZ and mechanical & electrical consultant The Anslow Partnership. Redburn's commercial property interests were represented by Savills. Soft finishes and furniture were procured by JAC Furniture

About the Building

10 Aldermanbury was developed by Legal & General as the Head Quarters office building for Flemings and completed in 2000. The building benefits from two entrances, one on Aldermanbury at the junction with Love Lane and the other on Gresham Street.

JAC GROUP

"As well as the functional requirements of the new Redburn office we wanted to create a timeless and classic aesthetic that delivered an attention to detail and a level of quality reflective of the work undertaken by Redburn.

Clean, crisp lines of architecture are coupled with beautiful joinery, fabrics and natural stone, combining to produce a design that is stunning in its simplicity and complex in its detail."
